Dear Brother and Sister Sweet:

Sue, Mary Beth, John and I are still thinking about our recent visit to Austin and have been so pleased by the way we were received, especially by your family. Our meals on Sunday were pleasant and delicious. The company we enjoyed was highly stimulating and inspiring. We remarked on the way home Monday that we couldn't remember a week end that had been more pleasant for us.

It was a joy to be with the Brethren church. I found a very responsive audience and felt that our worship together was extremely profitable for me, and I hope for others. I know that the future holds great things for the congregation there. I pray God's blessings and wisdom on your every plan and endeavor.

Let me know of any distinct ways that I can contribute to the success of your future plans. I appreciate so much the unusual kindness offered to me and my family by you.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
